Sch. Mabel D. Hines, Capt. Charles Rudolph, also arrived this morning and has a big trip, something in the neighborhood of 300,000 pounds.
Part of the Morrissey's fare and the whole of the Hines' trip are on the market.

SEINERS GET GOOD HAULS.

Several Fine Fares Are at Newport Today.

CAPT. SOL. JACOBS AT BOSTON.

Some Vessels Made Hauls and Salted.

The good weather of the past two or three days was quite a boom to the seining fleet and as a result there are several fine fares at Newport today and one at Boston.
The fleet are fishing between No Man's Land and the South Shoal lightship and the report from there is that lots of fish have been seen, but they are so wild that it is almost impossible to catch them.

At Newport are the following fares:
Sch. Mary E. Harty, 160 barrels fresh mackerel.
Sch. Nellie Dixon, 125 barrels fresh mackerel.
Sch. Ellen F. Gleason, 60 barrels fresh mackerel.
Sch. Nourmahal, 15,000 fresh mackerel.
Sch. Sea Fox, 100 barrels fresh mackerel.
Sch. Saladin, 250 barrels fresh mackerel.
Sch. Constellation, 100 barrels fresh mackerel.

At Boston is the steamer Alice M. Jacobs with 20,000 fresh mackerel and 30 barrels salt mackerel.

Several vessels are reported to have made hauls and salted at the same time these fresh fares were taken.

Sch. Fitz A. Oakes, 23 barrels fresh mackerel.
Sch. Elsie F. Rowe, 15 barrels fresh mackerel.
Sch. Lizzie Hagan, 20 barrels fresh mackerel.

The spring catch of mackerel is now over as far as Nova Scotia is concerned. The result as a whole, is not altogether satisfactory. In some districts exceptionally large catches were secured, but at other places no fish at all were taken. In Chedabucto Bay, at Arichat and in Lennox Passage, and vicinity fully 10,000 barrels were packed, although at one time the catch was rumored to be 25,000 barrels. The price ex-vessel if about $8. Fishermen on the Halifax and Lunenburg coast are hoping to do better when the summer run of fish comes along.

Fresh mackerel brought 13 cents each at Boston today.

The druggers landed 18 barrels of very large mackerel at Rockport yesterday.

RAISED THE PRICES.

Board of Trade Fisheries Committee Put Them Up.

No Distinction Between Eastern and Western Fresh Cod.

The fisheries committee of the Board of Trade at its weekly meeting this morning made several raises in price on different lines of salt cod. Large handline Georges were jumped 25 cents, from $3.75 to $4 and large trawl Georges were moved up from $3.50 to $3.75. Large trawl bank was raised from $2.87 1-2 to $3 and large handline cod elevated from $3.12 1-2 to $3.25 per hundred weight.

The fresh fish committee also had a meeting and raised the price of fresh cod caught to the eastward of Cape Sable to $2 and $1.40 per hundred weight for large and medium.

These are the same figures as are quoted by the committee on fresh cod caught to the westward of Cape Sable, so the distinction, in price at least, between the eastern and western caught cod is done away with for the time being at least.
